

Alcott, Colorado.

April 12 1894.

Dear Julia:-

Can I trouble
you to give this letter to Father, please do not leave it with anyone else and I am very anxious for him to get it just as soon as possible. I will be so grateful to you.

I am a great deal better than when you last saw me still I am a long ways from being well. yet had I remained in Sarnia

I would have been dead long ago I'm sure.
I was so sorry to hear of the death of poor Lizzie, she must have gone very quickly for she was well when I left.

I like the climate here very much and the scenery all around is magnificent.

With love to yourself
and little Aggie
Yours very sincerely
Lizzie Wells.
