FACULTY OF DIVINITY.

MATRICULATION.

Graduates of any University, as well as non-graduates, before entering the College, will have to satisfy the Bishop of the Diocese, or the Divinity Professor, that in reference to personal piety, general intellectual qualifications and cordial attachment to the principles of the Church, they are fit persons to be trained for the Ministry. For this is required—(1) a letter from the applicant himself, stating his motives for seeking admission to the Christian Ministry; (2) a private letter from the applicant's Clergyman addressed to the Bishop or Divinity Professor; and (3) a personal interview with the Bishop and the Divinity Professor.

The first year for non-graduates is a year of probation, after which, if their conduct is satisfactory, and there is a reasonable prospect of their becoming, with God's blessing, useful Ministers of the Church, they are admitted to be Divinity Students.
